Debutantes and parents on tour of medical center

The Antelope Valley Medical Center recently hosted the Alpha Charter Guild Debutantes and their parents to a luncheon and tour of the hospital.

The object of the tour is to acquaint the debbs with the facilities and show how funds raised at the annual Hourglass Debutante Ball are used to purchase special equipment for the hospital. Of special interest to the guild has been the coronary care unit, to which they have heavily contributed.

Mrs. Louis Dee, guild president, welcomed members and guests, and introduced Robert Ernst, administrator of the medical center, who also welcomed guests and introduced Mike Drennan, head of Family Practice unit, who gave a detailed explanation of the Family Practice service which is available to those who do not have a family physician.

Mrs. Dee then introduced the guild board members including Mmes. Phillip Coussens, and Tami.

Roland Lampela, Victor Park, Lamont Odett Jr. and Charles Bock. Special guests were Dr. R.R. Holmes, president of AVMC board of trustees, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rowe, (Mrs. Rowe is head of volunteer services), Ms. Loretta Hansen, supervisor of nursing, Richard Borgmann, assistant administrator, and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Baker, Mrs. Baker is president of Woman's Auxiliary to AVMC.
